

OBTAIN DRIVER'S LICENSE

Note: These are not 'walk-in' driving schools. They are workforce development programs that will pay for your driving school as part of a larger job training or education plan."

Washington, D.C.

- Job Corps (Potomac Center):
 - Best For: Youth ages 16–24.
 - What They Offer: A fully free federal education and job training program. Driver's education (classroom and behind-the-wheel) is a standard benefit for all enrolled students.
 - Address: 1 DC Village Lane SW, Washington, DC 20032
 - Phone: (202) 574-5000
 - Website: potomac.jobcorps.gov
- Latin American Youth Center (LAYC):
 - Best For: Youth ages 16–24 (DC & Prince George's County residents).
 - What They Offer: Workforce programs often include "supportive services" funding that can pay for learner's permit fees and professional driving lessons for participants in job readiness tracks.
 - Address: 1419 Columbia Rd NW, Washington, DC 20009
 - Phone: (202) 319-2225
 - Website: layc-dc.org
- DC Department of Employment Services (Project Empowerment):
 - Best For: Residents with barriers (incarceration, substance abuse).
 - What They Offer: Case managers can issue vouchers to pay for third-party driving schools if a license is required for the participant's specific job target.
 - Location: 4058 Minnesota Ave NE, Washington, DC 20019
 - Phone: (202) 698-5599
 - Website: does.dc.gov
- CSOSA (Court Services and Offender Supervision Agency):
 - Best For: Adults under community supervision (probation/parole).
 - What They Offer: Community Supervision Officers (CSOs) can issue vouchers for driver's education as part of a re-entry employment plan.
 - Contact: Speak directly with your assigned CSO.
- DYRS (Dept. of Youth Rehabilitation Services):
 - Best For: Justice-involved youth.
 - What They Offer: The DYRS Achievement Centers often contract with driving schools to provide free lessons to youth under their supervision.
 - Address: 450 H Street NW, Washington, DC
 - Phone: (202) 576-8399
- Central Kenilworth Avenue Revitalization (CKAR) CDC:
 - Best For: Residents of Wards 7 & 8 and Greater Riverdale.
 - What They Offer: Workforce grants (like "Environmental Technician") that often budget for students' driver's licenses.
 - Phone: (240) 608-2527

- Website: ckarcdc.org

Prince George's County, MD

- Employ Prince George's (Construction Works Program):
 - Best For: Residents interested in construction careers.
 - What They Offer: Dedicated supportive service funds to pay for driving school and licensing fees for qualified applicants to remove transportation barriers.
 - Address: 1801 McCormick Drive, Suite 140, Largo, MD 20774
 - Phone: (301) 618-8400
 - Website: employpg.org
- Keys to Independence (Maryland):
 - Best For: Youth in Foster Care (ages 15-26).
 - What They Offer: A state program specifically designed to pay for driver's education, practice hours, and insurance costs for youth in the foster care system.
 - Website: dhs.maryland.gov (Ask your caseworker).
- Woodland Job Corps Center:
 - Best For: Youth ages 16–24.
 - What They Offer: Residential trade school that includes free driver's education and licensing for students.
 - Address: 3300 Fort Meade Road, Laurel, MD 20724
 - Phone: (301) 362-6000
 - Website: woodland.jobcorps.gov
- Maryland SNAP E&T (Employment & Training):
 - Best For: SNAP (Food Stamp) recipients.
 - What They Offer: Reimbursement for "supportive services," including driver's licensing fees, if part of an employment plan.
 - Phone: (301) 909-7000 (Contact DSS to enroll).
- Training Source, Inc.:
 - Best For: Low-income residents and TANF recipients.
 - What They Offer: Grant funding specifically to assist students with transportation and licensing barriers.
 - Address: 59 Yost Place, Seat Pleasant, MD 20743
 - Phone: (301) 499-8872
 - Website: thetrainingsource.org
- Hope Connections (via Melwood):
 - Best For: Individuals with disabilities.
 - What They Offer: Funding and training for transportation independence, including driving, via programs like "Abilities One."
 - Phone: (301) 599-8000
 - Website: melwood.org