

CHILDCARE RESOURCES Washington, D.C.

- DC Child Care Subsidy Program (OSSE):
 - Best For: Low-to-moderate income working families.
 - What They Offer: The main government voucher program. It pays the provider directly (or a large portion of the cost) for eligible families.
 - Who Qualifies: Families working, in job training (like this program), or in school.
 - How to Apply: Apply online or in-person at a DHS Service Center.
 - Phone: (202) 727-0284
 - Website: childcare.dc.gov
 - Portal: DC Department of Human Services
- DC Public Schools (Universal Pre-K 3 & 4):
 - Best For: Families with children ages 3 or 4.
 - What They Offer: Free full-day schooling for 3- and 4-year-olds, regardless of income. This is a massive cost-saver for families.
 - How to Apply: Through the "My School DC" lottery system.
 - Phone: (202) 888-6336
 - Website: myschooldc.org
- DC Head Start (United Planning Organization):
 - Best For: Low-income families with children ages 0–5.
 - What They Offer: Federally funded, completely free comprehensive child development services (early learning, health, family support).
 - Phone: (202) 238-4600
 - Website: upo.org/early-learning
- DC Child Care Connections (Resource & Referral):
 - Best For: Finding where to go.
 - What They Offer: They don't pay for care, but they provide free referrals to licensed child care centers and home-based providers who accept subsidies.
 - Phone: (202) 829-2500
 - Website: osse.dc.gov/service/child-care-connections
- Mary's Center:
 - Best For: Comprehensive family support and immigrant families.
 - What They Offer: While primarily health and education, their social services team helps families navigate the voucher application process and find affordable care.
 - Phone: (202) 483-8196
 - Website: maryscenter.org

Prince George's County, MD

- Maryland Child Care Scholarship (CCS) Program:
 - Best For: Low-income working families.
 - What They Offer: The state subsidy (formerly "POC"). Pays a portion of child care costs directly to the provider.
 - Who Qualifies: Parents who are working or in an approved training program (like an apprenticeship).
 - Phone: 1-877-227-0125
 - Website: earlychildhood.marylandpublicschools.org
 - Portal: Maryland OneStop
- Prince George's County Public Schools (Head Start & Pre-K):
 - Best For: Low-income families with children ages 3–4.
 - What They Offer: Free or low-cost Pre-K and Head Start programs located within elementary schools. Eligibility is primarily income-based.
 - Phone: (301) 408-5593
 - Website: pgcps.org/earlychildhood
- Department of Social Services (DSS):
 - Best For: Immediate assistance and application help.
 - What They Offer: Local administration of state benefits. Case managers can assist with the CCS application and other family support services.
 - Address: 805 Brightseat Road, Landover, MD 20785
 - Phone: (301) 909-7000
 - Website: princegeorgescountymd.gov/1626/Social-Services
- Maryland Family Network (LOCATE: Child Care):
 - Best For: Finding providers who accept the scholarship.
 - What They Offer: A free telephone service that filters providers by location, cost, and "Scholarship Accepted."
 - Phone: 1-877-261-0060
 - Website: marylandfamilynetwork.org
- Prince George's Child Resource Center:
 - Best For: Family advocacy and support.
 - What They Offer: Helps families navigate the system, find resources for affordability, and locate "Judy Centers" (comprehensive early childhood hubs).
 - Address: 9475 Lottsford Road, Suite 202, Largo, MD 20774
 - Phone: (301) 772-8420
 - Website: childresource.org